

For Immediate Release

March 3, 2011

Town & Country Bank Names New Chairman

ST. GEORGE, UT—The Board of Directors of Town & Country Bank has elected James A. Bingham as its new Chairman. Bingham has served on the board since August 2009, and is a 43-year veteran of the banking industry.

James A. Bingham

Town & Country Bank CEO Bruce Jensen says, “Jim’s long experience as a bank chief financial officer at several successful banks will aid us greatly in moving our institution forward.” Bingham has worked at various community banks in Oregon, California and Utah, and he is a co-founder of San Francisco-based Pacific Coast Bankers Bank, the largest correspondent bank in the United States.

Town & Country recently completed its third year of operation and realized its first quarterly profit for the three months ending December 31, 2010.

For further information, contact:

Elsa Picklesimer, Executive Assistant
Town & Country Bank
405 East St. George Boulevard
St. George, UT 84770

Tel. (435) 673-1150
elsap@tcbankutah.com

