

For Immediate Release

June 22, 2011

Town & Country Bank CEO Elected to Utah Bankers Association Board

ST. GEORGE, UT—Bruce Jensen, President/CEO of Town & Country Bank was elected yesterday to the Board of Directors of the Utah Bankers Association. Jensen is a 35-year veteran of the banking industry and has guided Town & Country since its opening in February 2008. The bank has reached profitability and has introduced a variety of innovative service concepts, including its concierge banking model, discount loaded ATM card, free business courier and Women's Banking Group.

Bruce Jensen

The Utah Bankers Association is the professional and trade association for Utah's commercial banks, savings banks and industrial loan corporations. Established in 1908, the UBA serves, represents and advocates the interests of its members.

For further information, contact:

Elsa Picklesimer, Executive Assistant
Town & Country Bank
405 East St. George Boulevard
St. George, UT 84770

Tel. (435) 673-1150
elsap@tcbankutah.com

