Former Mayor Dan McArthur Joins Town & Country Bank Board

ST. GEORGE, UT—Town & Country Bank has appointed Daniel D. McArthur to its Board of Directors. McArthur, who served as the Mayor of St. George for twenty years, joins eight other members of the bank's Board.

“We are elated to have Dan as a Director,” says Town & Country CEO Bruce Jensen. “As Mayor, his energetic leadership, vision and connections helped fuel solid growth and prosperity in Southern Utah. With Dan now on our team, I'm certain Town & Country can capitalize further on our position as St. George's only locally owned and headquartered community bank.”

In addition to serving as Mayor, McArthur helped organize the Washington County Economic Development Council, was elected President of the Utah League of Cities and Towns, was the Governor's appointee to Foster Care and Council on Aging, and served as Utah Safe Drinking Water Chairman. He is a native of St. George and has also announced that he is a current candidate for Washington County Commissioner.

Town & Country Bank opened in 2008 and has grown to over $84 million in assets as of March 31, 2014. The bank has been recognized for its innovative customer service, its proprietary ATM/debit card offering discounts at select area merchants, and its free courier service for business customers.
