Town & Country Bank Names New Board Member

ST. GEORGE, UT—Harold “Hal” Evans has joined the Board of Directors of locally-based Town & Country Bank. Mr. Evans has extensive management and banking experience, having worked at American Express in Phoenix, Citigroup in both Denver and Washington D.C., Barnett Bank in Jacksonville, Florida, and Universal Savings Bank in Milwaukee.

Five-and-a-half year old Town & Country Bank has grown to $79.8 million in assets, and posted its ninth successive quarterly profit on June 30th. The bank’s “high touch” concierge banking model, award-winning Town Card—offering discounts at select retailers—and free business courier have served to differentiate Town & Country in the banking industry. Town & Country also holds weekly, free in-bank community concerts every Friday at noon.
